

Dry Ridge hosts 2026 Farm to Table event

Each September the annual Grant County Farm to Table event, hosted by Grant County Chamber of Commerce, is held in a different location around the county. The 2026 event was held at Piddle Park in Dry Ridge. Though the weather forecast looked iffy, it turned out to be a beautiful evening for enjoying good company, live music and a great meal consisting of locally sourced ingredients.

While attendees mingled to music by the Rick Kinman band, behind the scenes was a hive of activity.

The event was put on with significant help from local Grant County and Williamstown high school students, and they worked hard to ensure guest enjoyed their meal.

Students in Grant County's and Williamstown's culinary classes prepared the meal, which consisted of locally sourced and Kentucky Proud ingredients. Attendees enjoyed a charcuterie board, rolls, bacon macaroni and cheese, corn on the cob, apple butter and jam with a mixed berry cobbler with ice cream for desert. The main dish was chicken pot pie, prepared with chickens that were raised and processed as part of a Grant County FFA project.

Future Farmers of America (FFA) and Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) members helped serve the meal.
